

Corporate Involvement (CSR)

Partnering with Habitat for Humanity Hungary gives corporations a worthwhile and visible social responsibility project. You can show that you stand for more than profit. It gives you a chance to give back to communities you work in and see real results for your efforts. We can offer high-voltage public relations as well as successful team-building, which will have a permanent positive effect on company morale.

Start a partnership with Habitat for Humanity Hungary. These corporate partnerships can come in many different ways, in any combination of possibilities, including:

- Financial support

- Product donations

- Mobilizing volunteers

- Grants and awards programs

- Public awareness raising
